MORE THAN 100 SECOND BALLOTS LIKELY-A

HOST OF CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD-BERLIN ART EXHIBITION-THE HE-BREWS OF RUSSIAN POLAND.

tin, May 13 .- The first week of the electoral struggle ends without any of the parties knowing where they stand and without any of them having anything like trustworthy data from which to forcast the result of the contest for members of the Reichstag. The leaders of the Social Democracy alone seem to retain a thorough grip upon their . They have to-night 142 candidates in the field, and can now reasonably hope to secure fity-five seats, a gain of nineteen seats over the number held by the party in the last Reichstag. From the unprecedented number of candidates appear-ing, it will be impossible for the results of the first day's polling, on June 15, to decide the general issue; and it is expected that the vote on that day will not certainly establish the political character of the

As is well known the successful candidate requires a majority over all his opponents, and the large mber of men seeking election and re-election in the various constituencies will make the required majority hard to obtain in many cases. It is thought that more than 100 second ballots will be necessary to decide questions of election, and it is therefore highly probable that the end of summer will have been reached before the House is finally constituted. is doubtful, whatever may be the result of the elections, whether the Reichstag will even then be convened for business. It is more likely that at will meet only to hear the Emperor's speech opening the session, and then adjourn until the usual period of opening in October. In the mean time it is evident that the parties will be reconstituted on platforms in which the Army bill will have almost a secondary place. The foremost planks of the Conservative platform already decided upon are pro-tectionism and bimetallism. In the absence of recognized party leaders and a party manifesto, some members of the Centre party will figure as independent Democratic Catholics. Dr. Sigl, a rabid anti-Prus sian, will stand for election in Munich as a Catholic Democrat, and his programme is undoubtedly a significant feature of the campaign as regards South Germany.

Each party seems determined to expend every available resource in contesting districts in which it has the remotest chance of ouccess; indeed, in many instances candidates will stand in districts in which success appears impossible. Thus in Berlin the Centrists will contest every district, although they know the Catholic vote is certain to be swamped by the immense preponderance of the Freisinnice and socialist votes. In some constituencies each of the eight recognized parties has a candidate in the field. The contest is further complicated by class interests which are demanding attention. The Agrarian League demands special pledges before giving its support to candidates, the trading guilds insist upon being heard, and the anti-Semites, bimetallists, and ost of groups with fads are making a turmeth which will not cease until the first day's balloting clears the atmosphere and brings into prominence the grand principles at stake.

The retirement of Count von Ballestrem and the other Centrist leaders is under reconsideration. The bulk of the party shrink from the prospect of Dr. Lieber becoming the leader of the party. him the democratic evolution party would proceed at full pressure. The aristocratic element of the party view such a prospect with dismay. Dr. Lieber's recent declaration that he was a Prussian against his will, and his attacks on the monarchical principle as represented in Emperor William, have made it imssible for him to be recognized as chief of a united Centre party. The two wings of the Freisinnige party have started in with opposing candidates in Berlin and elsewhere. The provincial Freisianige organizations, however, generally support Herr Eugen Richter, leader of the faction known as the Radical People's party.

THE ALLEGED REJOICING IN FRANCE. The Government organs carefully reproduce the reports in French newspapers as to rejoicing in May 6, arrived at Southampton at 4:15 o'clock this France at the rejection of the Army bill, adding afternoon. She passed the Lizard at 3:55 o'clock this sinister rumors regarding the designs of the French Government. They also publish doubtful telegraphs from Strasburg reporting that the French garrisons along the frontier have already been or are being reinforced, and that the granting of furloughs to all French soldiers and officers has been stopped. The alarm which these organs profess to feel has not spread among the people. Every one knows that the rejection has neither diminished the defensive strength of the Triple Alliance nor added to France's power of offensive. Outside of Chancellor von Caprivi's organs the idea is ridiculed that France and Russin will attack Germany because the Reichstag refused to grant all the Government demanded.

THE BERLIN ART EXHIBITION. The annual Berlin Art Exhibition will be opened to the public to-morrow. A press view was given to-day. There are 2,500 exhibits, of which 1,725 are oil paintings, 380 water colors, 60 etchings, 250 sculptures and 100 architectural exhibits. There are only a few works by foreign artists. Herkomer sent a portrait of the Grand Duchess of Mecklenburg, which is a fine study. Among the more prominent paintings are Lenbach's "Bismarck," and Huenter's "Hussars at Ligny." Wenglein, of Munich, has two views of the River Isar and Neckel has "A Mecca Caravan."

A BASELESS STORY OF HEBREW EXPULSION. An echo from some foreign quarter has reached here in regard to a newly published ukase ordering the wholesale expulsion of Hebrews from the Russian Peland frontier. It has been ascertained, however, that the only movement against the Hebrews has been the dislodging at several places along the frontier of Hebrews who were suspected of being engaged in smuggling. The families thus removed can settle in the interior. Apart from the ordinary observance of the old decrees aiming to keep the Hebrews within $xed pales, no movement against the race has taken place in Poland. The alleged outbreak of persecution is a myth.

FOR THE AUTUMN ARMY MANOEUVRES. In the autumn manoeuvres of the German Army on the vastest scale ever attempted will be held between Treves, Metz and Strasburg. TEN MINERS FROM RIVAL CAMPS KILLED.

St. Louis, May 13.—A dispatch to "The Globe-Democrat" from Durango, Mex., says: "For a long time a fend has existed between members of rival raining camps in the Sierra Madre Mountains, sixty miles east of Mazatlan. A few nights ago two employes, one from each camp, met on the narrow mountain road. One threw the other over a precipice and he was dashed to pieces on the rocks below. The fatal encounter led to a general conflict between the two camps on Thursday, in which ten men were killed and several badly wounded.

THE SHORT HILLS CASINO.

A PRETTY AND FASHIONABLE SUBURB'S INSTI-TUTION.

The Casino at Short Hills, N. J., is one of the most notable buildings of its kind in the New-York suburbs. The original structure was built by Stanford White, the architect of the Madison Square Garden, and like the latter structure is distinguished for its tower copied from a Brittany model. The Casino originally onsisted simply of a large hall for dances and the atricals, having a fine stage for the latter purpose, The interior was almost as striking as the exterior, for it was all finished in wood and the lines on one side were broken by a large open fireplace, on whose hearth the logs always blazed of a winter night's entertalament, giving a homelike cheerfulness to the place. phort Hills is noted for its social gayeties and exceedingly handsome entertainments, such as the chrysanthemum ball, and several fancy dress balls have been given in this hail. Lately there has been a demand for something more than a mere general recreation room. Stewart Hartshorn, who owns a greater part of Short Hills, has responded to the demand by adding largely to the original structure. The large hall with its excellent arrangements is reinined, but there have been added a commodious reading room, a billiard room and several bowling alleys, and the undertaking has already been so suc cessful that the addition of a first-class drill room is contemplated. The institution is not properly speak-

THE SPRINGTIME PLAYS.

A FEW CHANGES AMONG THE THEATRES TO-MORROW NIGHT.

Miss Vokes will remain at Daly's Theatre for only one week longer. Her engagement has been a most popular one, as it always is, and her admirers will all e sorry that it is so short. The bill offered last week proved so attractive that it has been decided to con-tinue it. It includes "Sunset," "Wig and Gown" and A Pantomime Rehearsal." In the last piece C. D. Marius has made a remarkable hit.

Edmund C. Stanton will take possess on of the Grand Opera House to-morrow night and will present Hinrich's Grand Opera Company, which will remain for a short season. The repertory for the week is as for lows: Monday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, "Il Trovatore"; Tuesday, "La Traviata"; Wednesday, "Maritana"; Friday, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Ernani"; Saturday matince, "Maritana"; Sunday evening, May 21, sacred concert, with the principal will follow after. There is nothing of greater importance to be announced in regard to it ut present evening, May 21, sacred concert, with the pincipal artists and orchestra. Louise Natali will make her first appearance in this city in several years on Tuesday night in "La Traviata," singing the part of Violetta.

Tomorrow evening at the Fifth Avenue Theater to Tomorrow evening at the Fifth Avenue Theater. The stuart Robson is to revive Bronson Howard's popular play, "The Henrietta," which has not been seen on the local stage in two years. The part of Bertie, the Wall street lamb, is a favorite one with Mr. Robson, and is affords him many opportunities to display his ability as a consedian. Mrs. Robson is to take the important part of Mrs. Opdyke. Nicholas Vanaistyne is to be played by George S. Woodward.

Tomorrow bettis the seventh and last week of sims and Raleigh's comedy, "The Gnardsman," at the Lyceum Theatre. This will end the spring season and the house will remain closed until the return of E. H. Sothern and his company, in the latter part of July, for his seventh annual season. John Maione will deliver a lecture at this house on "The Robson will bury her extra leg and dance no more, and Miss May Irwin will heave the sensat the Madison square Garden Theatre to-morrow night. The Duriesque of "Lady Windermer's Fan" has had a good run and it has been much enjoyed. Alexander Salvini's engagement at the Manhattan

Opera House has been extended, and to-morrow evening there will be a change in the plays to be presented. In "Cavalleria Rusticana" Mr. Salvini will take the part of Tirriddu, assisted by William Red-mund as Altio and Miss Dixon as Lola. Miss Judith Berolde has been engaged for the part of Santuzza, which she has played in Boston, San Francisco and Chicago. A "Benedictus" by Mascoroni will be inshead of the Campania. It was expected that there would be a close race, but the result has proved the the Campania is much the faster of the two mass for the church scene, has been engaged to conduct the orchestra. On the same evening Mr. Salvini will present "L'Ami Fritz," as arranged by himself and Paul Cazeneuve, in which he will be seen as Fritz Kobus, assisted by William Redmund as the Rubbl and Miss Maude Dixon as Suzel.

Charles Frohman's Players at the Empire Theatre will be this week the only regular stock company left playing in New-York, all the others having gone on the road for the summer or otherwise disappeared. They will have appeared 150 times in "The Girl I Left Behind Me" on Thursday, May 25, when a souvenir will be presented.

It is now intended that the new American Theatre will open with "The Prodigal Daughter" on Thursday evening. Miss Julia Arthur is to have the leading part. Miss Helen Dauvray will have the part of Dorcas Gentle, a demure little Quakeress with sport-ing blood in her veins. The cast will also include J. H. Barnes, Leonard Boyne, Russell Bassett, Jefferson de Angelts and Walden Ramsay.

Mr. Dixey's latest feature added to "Adonis" at the Casino has made a hit and is thought by some to be one of the cleverest bits he has done. It is a nonologue burlesque on the discovery of America by Columbus. A new song by Miss Montague has also been well received. Miss Bettina Gleard has retired from the cast, and to-morrow night Miss Lyla Kavanaugh will take the part of Artea, the fairy Miss Kavanaugh has just returned from Enrope and has a number of Spanish songs she will sing as specialties. On June 12 the graduating class at West Point will follow the time-honored custom of attending the Casino in a body, when, of course, special features and elaborate decorations will be made. On June 20 the 750th performance of "Adonis" will be celebrated. On Monday, May 22, the roof garden will be open to the public for the season, and a continuous entertainment from 8 o'clock until midnight

De Wolf Hopper and his company of alligers in Panjandrum" are drawing crowded houses at the Broadway Theatre. One of the pleasant features of Mr. Hopper's former engagements at the Broadway has been the attendance on various occasions of large theatre parties, composed principally of his friends and admirers, and this method of friendly demonstra tion will receive a fresh impetus this season. On Monday evening, June 12, the furlough class from West Point will visit the theatre. Great preparations are in progress for the public gambol of the Lambs to be held at the Broadway Theatre on Friday afternoon. In addition to the cantata by the Bos-tonians and the burlesque on "The Black Crook" a skit will be presented on the Vaudeville Club by ney Rosenfeld. There will also be presented "The Fringe of the Froth of the Crust of Society" by Sidney Rosenfeld, in which will appear De Wolf Hopper, E. M. Holland, Mark smith and Fritz Williams. Reginald de Koven will conduct three overtures from his own compositions. Large promises are made for the extravaganza 1492," which will be presented by E. E. Rice at Palmer's Theatre to-morrow evening. The costumes, scenery and effects are all said to be of dazzling sorts Among the characters introduced are Ferdinand of Aragon, Isabella of Castile, Charles VIII, King of France; the Infanta Jeanna, the Infanta Catalina, Mary Ann Kehoe, Maid Marian, Maid Mabel, Ward Knickerbocker and Columbus himself. The cast in-cludes Miss Theresa Vaughan, Miss Yolande Wailace, Miss Elleen Karl, Miss Marlborough, Miss Hattle Williams, Miss Edith Sinclair, Miss Nina Walsh, Miss Emma Marsh, Miss Ida Fairbanks, Miss Mabel Clark, Miss Josie Fairbanks, Walter Jones, Richard Harlow, Edward M. Favor, Charles F. Walton, John C. Slavin, J. Alden, Frank M. Tuttle, James Lee and Mark

Miss Vernona Jarbeau, who is well and favorably known here, will make her appearance in Harlem at the Columbus Theafre to-morrow evening and present er musical farce-comedy "Starlight." It is said to be full of good singing and dancing. "My Official Wife," under the management of Frank W. Sanger, will be presented on the stage of Hammerstein's Harlem Opera House this week. It will be played by Robert Livingston Cutting, jr., Mrs. Minnie Sellgman Cutting and the same company which supported them a few months ago at the Standard

"The Black Crook" will close its season at the Academy of Music at the end of the coming week. The Academy will perhaps close its doors for the entire summer at the end of this run.

The farewell appearance in America of Mrs. Potter and Mr. Bellew will be confined to eight performance at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, beginning to-morrov evening. The company includes among others Messrs Courtley, Clarges and Ward, and Misses Earle and Following this engagement Mr. Rosenquest will begin the final engagement in New-York of Joseph Arthur's "Flue Jeans." In the number of its final and farewell engagements "Blue Jeans" is now disputing the record with Mme. Pattl. Two or three more of them after this will place it undoubt edly in the lead, where it will indisputably hold its position, for Mane. Pattl seldem or never has more than two farewell engagements a year, while "Blae Jeans' can play three or four of them without turn ing a tooth of its buzz saw.

James T. Powers's second week at the Star Theatre in "A Mad Bargain" was productive of good results. He has had large audiences. Miss Maggie Cline, the "Irlsh Queen," is, of course, the strongest feature. Her songs nightly receive the most enthusiastic ap plause. Miss Cline's new song has found much public

At the Blion Theatre " A Texas Steer" is to have new set of scenery to-morrow night. The liftieth performance of the present run will occur on Tuesday evening, May 23, when souvenirs will be distributed. The performers who will appear at the Bijou Theatre this evening in behalf of the old actor, W. H. Pope, comprise an attractive programme. Beginning with J. W. Kelly, the list includes W. L. Bowron and his orchestra, Carroll Johnson, John W. Ransone, E. J. Henley, Palmer Collins, the Dore Brothers, Dick Gorman, Adams, Casey and Howard; Frederic Gillette, the Americus Quartet, O. M. Scott, James F. Healey, John W. Parr, George Lynne, John M. Turner, James B. Radeliffe, James C. Shannon, James F. Hoev, F. W. Eillott, George H. Wiseman, Miss Julia Arthur, Miss Marie Glover, Miss Rose Schottenfeld and Miss Mabel stillman. Prominent among the extra features offered are Filber's cabinet mystery and Victor Kuzdo, the Hungarian violinist. The beneficiary will be recalled as a member of Lester Wallack's company for many years. Paralysis has incapacitated him from service and left him blind and almost destitute. Leon J. Vincent will direct the stage.

Another week of the uninterrupted run of "A Trip to Chinatown* will begin at the Madison square Thea-tre to-morrow night. It will presumably be much like the weeks that have gone before and those which will follow after. There is nothing of greater im portance to be announced in regard to it at present.

May Robson, Miss Gracie Kimball and Mrs. E. A. Erberle.

The season at the Union Square Theatre ended last night. The manager, B. F. Keith, says that he had opportunities to continue it if he had chosen to make contracts with attractions not quite sure of metropolitan success, but rather than follow that course, he preferred to bring the season to a close. This will also give him plenty of time to carry on the work of refitting the house before its opening in the early antumn. At that time Mr. Keith's original plan of continuous performances will be put into operation.

This week Rose and Charles Coghlan are to fill an engagement in Newark. They will appear in "Diplomacy," "Peg Woffington" and "Money." The same plays will be presented the following week in Brooklyn, where they end their season on May 27.

Mme. Rhea will produce next season a new play entitled "The Queen of Sheba," be William Young. Frank Dietz has been engaged as manager of the four. The Seclety of Decorative Art, which is doing a most excellent and important work, is to have a special sale at Sherry's to-morrow, which ought to add considerably to its funds, if it is as well patronized as it deserves to be.

THE N. Y. A. C.'S COUNTRY CIRCUS.

AN AMUSING ENTERTAINMENT BY PROFESSIONAL SHOW PROPLE.

A merry entertainment was given at Dickel's Riding Academy yesterday afternoon and evening. It was called a country circus, and the entertainment committee of the New-York Athletic Club was responsible for It. It was not an affair of three rings, but an old style, one-ring show, such as the men of to-day saw when they were boys in country towns. There was the funny clown and his eccentric partners; the female tight-rope walker and the trained dogs and boxing cats. There were acrobats and horizontal-bar performers, and some first-class riding and feats on the flying rings by artists well up in the profession. Those who performed were members of the company low at Proctor's Theatre, and the circus was given for the benefit of the club's building fund. There for the benefit of the club's building fund. There were twelve acts on the programme. Among them the horseback riding of Emil Anthony, Professor Hampton's dog circus, the Fatterson brothers on the horizontal bar, Miss Marguerite Braatz, the tight-rope walker, and the King sisters in songs, dances and club swinging.

The afternoon performance was given especially for children, and their merry laughter and exclamations of astonishment at the queer things they saw so encouraged the performers that they made greater efforts to do well, and the one funny clown was said to be brighter than ever before. The entertainment committee was composed of G. D. Phillips, W. R. Eassett, F. D. Iandon, J. H. Booth and C. L. Burnham. The music was furnished by the 7th Regiment Band.

MAGIC AND COMEDY AT DALY'S.

A most interesting programme will be offered at Daly's Theatre a week from to-morrow night, when Kellar, the magician, and Mrs. Kellar, will show a great array of facts and illustons. It is promised that many of array of facts and flusions. It is promises are certainly new, on the local stage at least. Mr. Kellar's portion of the programme will be preceded by a short comedy, to be performed by a portion of Mr. Daly's company not engaged on the tour with him. The opening play will be a mustcal comedictia, in which Miss Kitty Cheatham, Miss Haswell, Owen Fawcett, Mr. Jepson, Mr. Hackett and Mr. Buckland will take part.

A CHAPEL FOR A WELL-KNOWN CHURCH. THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN TO HAVE MORE ROOM FOR ITS WORK.

As a pledge of the often expressed determination of the "Old First" Presbyterian Caurch to remain downtown, the parishloners have determined to build a handsome tew chapel as an addition to the church which is at Fifth-ave, and Eleventh-st. The new wing will be at the south end of the church; the southern section will extend 60 feet from the church. and will be 30 feet wide and two stories high. Branching eastwardly, it will be three stories high and will extend 30 feet. The architecture of the building will be the same as that of the church proper. the chapel and the church.

The purpose of the building will be to develop the social side of church life, and to provide a place for the more informal devotional meetings. The building will contain a large Sunday-school room, a room for prayer meetings, the pastor's study, a meeting place for session and trustee consultation, and several parlors and rooms for the guilds connected with the church.

The Rev. Dr. Howard Duffield will lay it, and at 3

Richard Harlan, the former pastors of the church, will also be present. The building will be finished by October.

COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE MEET.

TO ILLUSTRATE THE ART OF LIVING CHEAPLY-AN OBJECT LESSON AT THE WORLD'S FAIR. The New-York branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae held a meeting yesterday afternoon at No. 17 West Forty-feurth-st. This association is composed of the women graduates of all the colleges in this country. The officers of the New-York branch are: President, Miss Alice Dinsmore, Vassar; vice-president, Miss Alice Williams, University of Michigan; secretary, Miss Elizabeth Hoy. Mis-Fannie McLean, University of California, head worker in the College Settlen.ent Society, No. 95 Rivington st., made an interesting report on the work that has been done by the Settlement Society, and explained fully its plans and purposes. Jean Bracq, of Vassar College, made an address on Modern Political Life in France." Miss Catharine B. Davis, Vassar College, gave a detailed description of a model workingman's which has been built by the State of New-York, after the plans of John Boyd Thacher. This home, as described by Miss Davis, is situated 150 yards west of the Forestry Building in Jackson Park, Chicago, and is built to accommodate a family of five. pose is to educate poor people, by an object lesson, to live economically. The building cost $1,200 and the furnishing $300. It is purposed to place a workingman's family of father, mother and three children, with an income of $500 a year, in the house, charge $10 a month rent, and show them how to live economically and nicely on 55 cents a day—11 cents for each person.

Among the Alumnae present were Mrs. Helen Hitchcock Backus, Vassar; Miss Alice Albro, Brya Mawr; Mrs. Francis Fisher Wood, Vassar; Miss McFadden, Vassar; Miss Polwin, Wellesley, and Miss Briggs, Corneli. Some fifty graduates, representing about ten colleges, were present.

EXAMINING EMIGRANTS AT ROTTERDAM.

Passed Assistant Surgeon R. M. Woodward, of the Marine Hospital service, recently detailed to Rotterdam to examine immigrants and to disinfect passenger-carrying vessels, has made a report on those of the Netherlands-American Line. He says that since the prevalence of cholera last fall the vessels have been disinfected each trip just before leaving Rotterdam, the method being to wash the decks and the steerage and forecastle with a 5 per cent solu tion of creolin, and then to fumigate with a mixture of chloride of time and crude carbelle acid. The vessels are thoroughly cleaned before leaving port. The water supply comes from the River Maas, the tanks being filled from the Rotterdam waterworks. The examine the passengers before they go on board.

Dr. Woorlward stands in the corridor of the emigrants' hotel and personally inspects every pagsenger after he or she is passed by the local physicians, suspicious cases are sent to the hospital. Dr. Woodward will also go to Amsterdam to examine the immigrants who sall from that port once in three weeks by the Netherlands Line. The Consait has disinfected all freight vessels since the epidemic, and rags are disinfected by steam in a closed room built for that purpose. for that purpose.

Dr. Woodward adds that stotterdam is a clean place.

RAN AWAY WHILE DESCENDING A MOUNTAIN. Detwer, May 13 .- A dispatch to "The Republican" from Silver Plume, Col., says that while Henry Garrett, James Leggo, James Urr, Nels Johnson and Andrew Olson were descending the mountain from the seven Thirty Mine the horses attached to the wagon which they were riding became frightered and dashid at a fearful rate down the road. All the occupants jumped, alighting among the rocks on the mountain side. Urr was perhaps fatally injured; Garrett and Leggo received terrible wounds about the head and body, but are likely to recover; Johnson and Olson escaped with light injuries. After the men and jumped from the wagon, the horses leaped over a precipice.
